

ShantiWorks

Equality Peace Justice

We acknowledge the elders on this land, the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation. We acknowledge that these lands have not been ceded, nor has a treaty ever been reached. We acknowledge that Aboriginal people continue to resist state sanctioned oppression and violence every day in a multitude of ways.

Intensive two day workshop -

Growing Duluth: Accountability Based Group Work with Perpetrators

Date: 30th April and 1st May 2018

Venue: St Kilda Town Hall, 99A Carlisle St, St Kilda

Cost: $800 + GST

This intensive workshop is designed for and is most appropriate for practitioners who work with perpetrators of violence against women.

Presenters include:

- Melissa Scaia - Co-Founder of Domestic Violence Turning Points, and former executive of Domestic 'the Duluth Model' - Duluth, Minnesota, St. Louis County
- Graham Barnes - former Duluth Men's Program Facilitator and Trainer - New Zealand

Due to the selection criteria required to attend this intensive workshop, registration will be emailed to those who meet the requirements.

REGISTER NOW!

Coming from interstate? Rydges St Kilda will offer you 10% off the best price of the day if you quote 'ShantiWorks' when you call or email them on 1300 884 373 or reservations_rydgesstkilda@evt.com

domestic abuse
intervention programs

Home of the Duluth Model
Social Change to End Violence Against Women

GLOBAL RIGHTS
for WOMEN Justice for Victims of Violence